Aspen Winter Activities

Aspen's seemingly endless outdoor adventures and activities—ranging from skiing and snowshoeing to sleigh rides and ice skating—offer something for guests of all ages. For information, activity ideas or reservations for any of the activities listed below, please contact the concierge.

Outdoor Adventures

Skiing at Aspen/Snowmass

There is a reason the world comes here to play. One lift ticket lets you experience the spectacular ski and ride terrain at all four of Aspen's exceptional mountains: Aspen, Aspen Highlands, Buttermilk, and Snowmass. If you would like to purchase lift tickets for skiing and snowboarding in advance, and have them available for you upon arrival at the hotel, please contact the concierge.

Ski and Snowboard Schools

Aspen/Snowmass' excellent ski and snowboard school programs offer superb instruction in alpine skiing, snowboarding, children's lessons and adaptive techniques. With more than 1,200 professional instructors from across the globe, Aspen/Snowmass has a program and an instructor to suit every age, ability and interest. For advance reservations, call 970-925-1220.

Snowshoeing

Discover Aspen's scenic backcountry on a guided snowshoe tour, led by naturalists from the Aspen Center for Environmental Studies. On the tour, you'll weave in and out of spruce-fir forests and along a babbling creek while your guide teaches you about the animals that inhabit the Rocky Mountains in winter. Guided tours include lift tickets, snacks, warm drinks, snowshoe rentals, guides and basic instruction. For more information, call 970-925-5756.

If you'd rather explore Aspen Mountain on your own, strap on a pair of snowshoes, grab a trail map and set off into the woods, up the mountain or along a mountaintop ridge. Or enjoy the more than 80 kilometers of groomed cross-country ski and snowshoe trails that make up the Aspen/Snowmass Nordic Trail System, which links the towns of Aspen and Snowmass via the Owl Creek Trail.

Cross-country Skiing

Aspen and Snowmass—with over 80 kilometers of groomed trails—have one of the largest free groomed Nordic trail systems in North America. The one-of-a-kind Aspen/Snowmass Nordic Trail System, which links two Aspen and Snowmass Village via the Owl Creek Trail, meanders across quiet meadows and through secluded wooden areas while crossing three distinct valleys. Instruction, guides and rentals are located at the Aspen Cross Country Center, the Snowmass Club and the Ashcroft Ski Touring Area. For more information, call 970-925-2145 or 970-923-3148.

Powder Tours

Love powder? Join Aspen Skiing Company on a Powder Tour to the hidden bowls and quiet glades on the backside of Aspen Mountain. On this thrilling full-day adventure, luxury Snowcats take you to prime untracked stashes where fresh tracks, exhilarating terrain and breathtaking Rocky Mountain views are guaranteed. Lunch and snacks provided. Advanced skiers and snowboarders welcome.

Dog Sledding

Hop on a sled and let trained huskies whisk you through Aspen's beautiful backcountry. One sled carries two adults and is driven by thirteen Alaskan sled dogs and an experienced musher. The half-day trip includes a four-course lunch. Twilight rides begin at 3:30 p.m. and include a four-course dinner.

Snowmobiling

Ride up to the famous Maroon Bells (which is accessible only by snowmobile in winter), the Continental Divide or the ghost town of Independence. Travel on groomed trails and enjoy panoramic views of Pyramid and Capital peaks. A snack or lunch break is included. Single or double snowmobiles are available. All levels are welcome.

Snowcat Rides and Dinners

Take a Snowcat ride up to Burlingame Cabin, an authentic Old West cabin located on the slopes of Snowmass Mountain, and enjoy an evening filled with a family-style barbeque dinner, fireside sing-a-longs and live entertainment. Reservations required.

Hot-air Ballooning

Early morning sunrise balloon rides offer breathtaking views of Aspen, Snowmass and the surrounding peaks. Soar above the treetops for about one hour then complete your adventure with a champagne toast and pastries.

Golf

The Snowmass Club golf course—an 18-hole, par-72 courses designed by award-winning architect, Jim Engh—offers fun and challenging holes for golfers of all abilities. The semi-private club features a learning center, practice area and clubhouse with full-service restaurant and bar. Call 800-525-0710 for information on greens fees and tee times.

The Aspen Golf & Tennis Club

An 18-hole, par-72 course with numerous water features and impressive views of the surrounding Maroon Bells and Continental Divide. Call 970-429-1949 for information on greens fees and tee times.
